REGION IV SYSTEM OF DISTRICT & SCHOOL SUPPORT PRESENTS:

Assessment and Data Analysis Series

The Region IV System of District & School Support (R4SDSS) will be providing regular, on-going accountability professional development and informational meetings for Program Improvement (PI) Local Education Agencies and Program Improvement Schools in Alameda, Contra Costa, Marin, Napa, San Francisco, San Mateo and Solano Counties throughout the 2011-2012 school year.

This professional development opportunity focuses on preparing site- and district-level administrators to lead comprehensive benchmark and interim assessment development/selection and data management activities. Also emphasized during this PD event are protocols for examining student performance data for the purpose of instructional program decision-making including the development of flexible intervention programs.

This workshop is a four day series where participants will: 1. Understand that essential standards and performance level descriptors (PLDs) ground assessment development, scoring/grading, intervention responses, and teacher support; 2. Be able to lead and support essential standards and PLD activities at their sites/districts; 3. Be able to develop a system-wide plan that identifies common assessments, analysis protocols; responses to meet student and teacher needs and address next steps.

When: September 15, 2011; October 18, 2011; February 23, 2012; March 22, 2012
